"We are indebted to J. G. Fournier Esq., for late California papers.

75 Merchant, plasterers and carpenters, would do well to notice the lumber advertisements of Messrs. Whipple and Montgomery in to-day's paper.

SACRAMENTO AND MIAMI.—Frank was the proprietor of the De Soto Saloon, on Main street, was fined $10 by the Recorder yesterday, on the charge of selling liquor to minors.

RECORDERS' COURT.—The Recorder was full of business again yesterday, and did not have time for day's cases. Fees to the sum of $100 were assessed, of which sum $80 were paid.

ONE SESSION DAILY.—The Recorder has very wisely determined to hold but a single session of his court daily, limiting the business to that extent, so that his court will be more lucrative.

THE CITY DOOR.—In obedience to the ordinance, the police are waging a war of extermination upon the canine race, and the lives of scores of worthless curs have been sacrificed by legal hands. We trust the dogs will be prosecuted until every trifling case in the corporation shall have been made to bite the dust.

APPRENTICES & CO.—The firm of Apprentices and Co., the morning, their card in another column, offering their services to all who desire it, and are now engaged in the manufacture of Factors and Grocers and Commission Merchants. This firm is well known as the most active and enterprising in Memphis; they do a large business, have a few offices shed and every necessary and requisite for attending to all their wants.

A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.—The case of Charles Morrissey, charged with the abduction of Jeanette Lewis, was partially heard by Exquire Davis yesterday, in the Criminal Court room, at Exchange Building. The testimony was heard in the presence of a large audience, and various points were argued at length by the counsel. The case was adjudged for trial to-morrow morning.

THE NAPOLEON MYSTERY.—We published yesterday morning, that a Frenchman had been committed on Saturday last at Na-polion. Under the impression that the report was not altogether or trusted, we withheld the name of the accused, and the facts of the case, and nothing was learned to satisfy us that the person accused was not guilty. It is now known that he was not only innocent, but had not even been arrested.

STANDING APPEAL.—Two young men of the city, Nathaniel Moore and John W. Moore, engaged in a law suit in some very trivial matter, near the corner of Union and Front Row, about seven o'clock last evening, during which Wilson drew a pistol and inflicted a severe though not dangerous wound in the side of Moore. Wilson was not arrested, and we were pleased to learn yesterday that the patient is not only not dead, but is recovering rapidly.
